

Understanding Color and Biography

A weekened workshop with Iris Sullivan in RENO

Color is the journey of our life. When we understand Color, we can understand our unique pathway through our biography to our relationships now.
In this workshop we will paint the colors from childhood adolescence and adulthood

WE will explore archetypal human development and how this may shed light on our own personal challenges.

Cost for individuals: $175 per person
Cost for couples: $150 per person

Iris is an art therapist, artist and teacher
