

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT HEART TO HAND SCHOOL

Internet Review – We Love This School!: This school offers a loving, gentle atmosphere for my daughter and a wonderful community for the whole family. I really appreciate how the teachers and administrators see my daughter as a whole person and not as something to deal with. At Heart To Hand, she's learning social skills that I wouldn't have been able to teach her on my own. Even more important to me, she's in an environment there where her sweet and loving nature is encouraged, protected, and given room to grow.

Christmas Card:

Thank you all for being so loving toward [our daughter]. It means so much to us that her gentle soul is met with such tenderness and love.

Internet Review – Heart To Hand Is Simply Inspiring: My daughter spent her 2 preschool years at this amazing school which I am now sending my son to. My daughter left Heart To Hand with confidence, security, and a sense of herself. She was able to grow in an amazing and loving environment where her teachers genuinely and honestly cared for her. It is rare to find such a place! The classrooms are warm and friendly and the children have a real sense of their little community. My son loves it and I wouldn't have either of my children any other place! At the end of the day, I want to know that my children are in a school where they are accepted for who they are and loved. Heart to Hand is amazing and worth going to see for yourself!!

Farewell Card:

You all have such warm hearts and it clearly reflects upon the children. You always made [our son and daughter] feel so special and welcome. It's rare to find teachers who operate on such a genuine and truly sincere level – you all have such a gift! The work you do is amazing – [our children] are prime examples. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for being part of [our children's] lives and give them such a truly amazing experience.

Internet Review - A Waldorf Preschool In Reno: My child attends the Heart to Hand Preschool on Peckham Lane in Reno, NV. The Waldorf curriculum is a play-based program which encourages creative development and helps children understand their relationship to the world. The school has nutritious snacks, toys made of natural materials, and a warm, nurturing environment. The teachers and parents are both active and involved in the classroom and after school activities. My child is a happy preschooler and I highly recommend this school.

Internet Review – Natural Beauty: We love this school. The healthy snacks and the attention to details. The singing and movement, the rope swing, the baking and all the other wonderful activities make this school special and different from the rest. The teachers are loving and create a wonderful experience each and every day!

Internet Review – Waldorf, Play-Based School In Reno!: My 4 year old attends Heart To Hand Preschool & Kindergarten and absolutely loves it. They teach in the Waldorf tradition which embraces creativity, kindness, and respect and love for the world around us. It is unlike any school environment I've ever seen. The classrooms use diffused light and soft colors to encourage a calmness and warmth. Toys are made of natural materials and everyday objects that require children to utilize imagination during play. Even the playground (or Play Garden as it's called at Heart To Hand) is not like any playground I'm used to. Among the apple trees and tall sunflowers, there's a rope swing, trees to climb, dirt and mud to 'work' in – it's all very reminiscent of simpler times – very much reminds me of when I grew up. My little one is thriving here - I encourage anyone looking for preschool/kindergarten to visit and experience this very special place.

Farewell Card:

We just want to express our gratitude for giving [our daughter] such a wonderful place to grow. We truly appreciate how you honored her as a child, respected her as an individual, and made her feel safe and loved. We are sure that she will, as we do, cherish the time she spent digging in the mud, climbing trees, and making beautiful watercolor masterpieces.

Internet Review – Finally, A Waldorf Style Education In Reno: My child attends the Heart to Hand School in Reno. Heart to Hand is a Waldorf Initiative in Northern Nevada. The Waldorf based curriculum teaches kids how to be conscious of the world around them and encourages their creativity. If you are looking for an alternative to schools filled with TV, junk food, and overwhelming structure, this is it!

Note From Parent – She Now Loves School: Heart To Hand School has provided my daughter the opportunity to explore her unique personality. She's discovering her likes and dislikes, her goals, and her sense of fun within appropriate loving boundaries. She now loves school!
